A Message from the Host

Welcome to East Tennessee y'all! As the host for the 1998 NBAD Team Tournament and on behalf of all the resorts and business involved, I would like to thank all the fishing participants, their families, and guests for choosing Watts Bar Lake for this annual get-together. For many of you, this may be your first trip to the Volunteer state. With so many things to do and see, we hope you will have time to fish! I will try to introduce to you some ideas that may help you plan your week.

Watts Bar Lake is a fishing paradise offering many species of game fish and a long season to catch them in. We have 38,000 acres of water stretched over 72 miles of river and every bend offers the angler new and exciting challenges. From rocky ledges to stump fields to sandy flats to sunken tree tops, Watts Bar has the type of structure you like to fish and the bass are waiting for your lures! This is why Watts Bar Lake was voted one of the top three lakes in Tennessee.

For those not seeking a 7 pound "hawg", East Tennessee offers many days of shopping and sight-seeing. We have many local shops in Spring City and Dayton to find that perfect souvenir, and the historical courthouse in Dayton was the sight of the famous Scopes' trial. Further south, you will find Chattanooga with the Aquarium, Lookout Mt., And many other sites. To our north and east we have Knoxville and Oak Ridge, while further east will put you into the Smoky Mts. With Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge.

This is really a busy place! We hope your trip to our part of world is both enjoyable and memorable. Again, on behalf of all the business owners and citizens of Spring City and Watts Bar Lake, we want to welcome you to our home, hope you have a great time, and hope you will come see us again.

Robert Bennett

MESSAGE FROM THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF 1998 NBAD TEAM TOURNAMENT

Greetings!

Welcome to beautiful East Tennessee where the 23rd Annual National Bass Association of the Deaf Team Tournament will be held at Watts Bar Lake in Spring City, TN. The Tennessee Bass Association of the Deaf (TBAD) and Hearing Impaired Bass Anglers Society of St. Louis, Missouri (HIBASS) are delighted with opportunity to host this event. This is the first time in history that a NBAD Team Tournament has taken place in Tennessee. We want to extend a warm & Southern welcome to each of you who has made this tournament a part of your summer plans. Because of the many recreational attractions in the surrounding area such as Gatlinburg, Pigeon Forge, Dollywood, and Chattanooga, we encourage each of you to visit as many as you can while here. Most of all, we want you to have a good time, see old friends, make new friends, and enjoy the tournament.

I would like to take the time to express sincere thanks to the committee members and volunteers for their help in preparing the 1998 NBAD Team Tournament and to our financial supporters who assisted with the boosters and advertisements. I especially want to mention with gratitude the following resorts: Arrowhead, Lakeside, and Terrace View for their involvement in providing accommodations and such for the tournament.

It is a pleasure and an honor to host this year NBAD Team Tournament. We hope that it will be one of the most successful tournament ever.

BEST WISHES to all the fishermen. Enjoy yourselves, catch a lot of fish, and just have a good time. Have a great and safe week.

Sincerely,

Danny Cochran
General Chairman of 1998 NBAD

Message from Co-Chairperson

Hello Anglers and Fans,

This is my tenth year with National Bass Association of the Deaf. All those years, I had wonderful times with this organization.

Being Co-Chairperson, I wanted to say big thanks to both Hearing Impaired Bass Anglers Society of St. Louis and Tennessee Bass Association of the Deaf members for their hard working, tireless, motivated, and commitment to the 1998 N.B.A.D. Tournament.

We, H.I.B.A.S.S. and T.B.A.D., will host a new system called "A, B, C Flight Group". This system will be the first in N.B.A.D. history. We will have Casting for Kids Competition during the N.B.A.D. Event. The kids will have a chance to win their future college scholarship, which is being sponsored by B.A.S.S. organization.

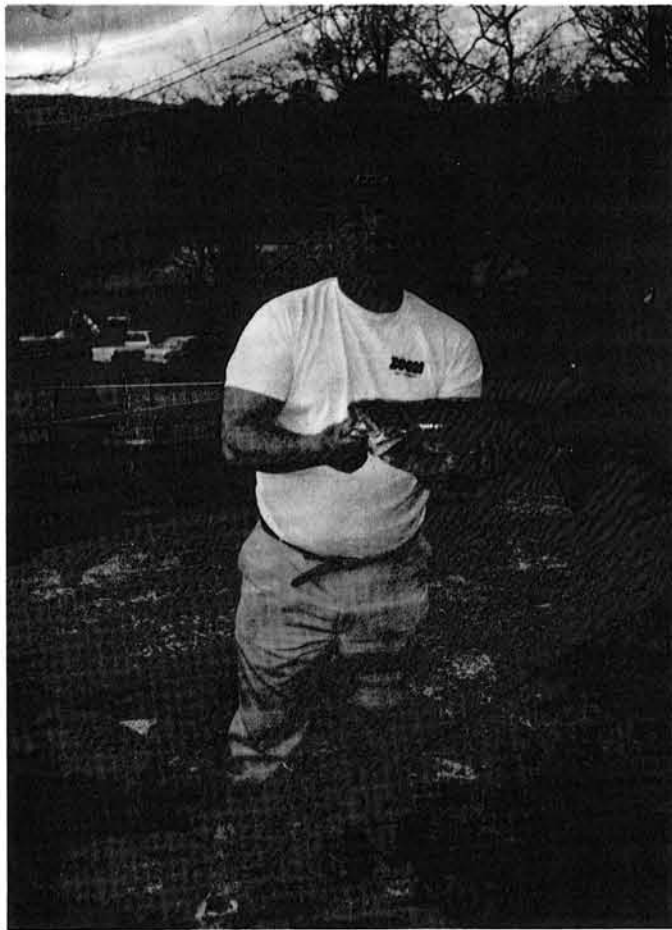

Be safe and enjoy your stay with N.B.A.D.

Very Bassing Luck,

Greetings and Salutations!

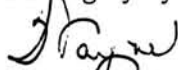

First of all, I want to extend my personal and heartiest "THANKS" to Danny Cochran and his wonderful committee of "Tennessee Volunteers" for the multi-hours spent in preparing for this NBAD tournament. Please take a minute of your time to sign "THANK YOU" when you see Danny and his "Vols."

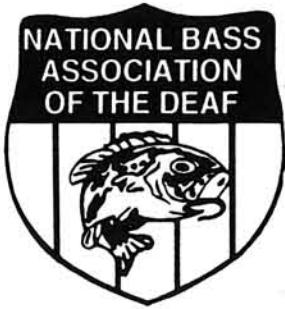

To YOU: bass enthusiasts and fans - thank you for coming to Watts Bar to either participate in the NBAD tournament or to watch and see who brings in the "Hawg Bass." I hope your stay at Watts Bar will be a memorable one.

I was sitting at my desk one day and planning strategy for a day of bass fishing. I was wondering that with all those lures I have in my five tackle boxes - which lure should I begin my first cast with. The more I thought, the more I became frustrated - then it dawned upon me. The best bass lure is confidence in your ability to locate bass and catch them. You must have complete confidence in what you're doing and the lure you're using. It's a mental attitude, to be sure, but it can make all the difference in the world in catching bass or not catching bass.

Have a safe journey home when this tournament is over. Just remember, parting is such sweet sorrow and as long as NBAD and the affiliated Clubs continue to prosper and grow - we can always be ensured of continuous NBAD tournaments in the future.

Bassingly yours,

Greeting to every NBAD Members. This time of the year during the later part of May and early part of June is very hectic as NBAD tournament time approach wherever and whenever it is. There is always the last minute getting ready. Checking out the fishing tackle, respooling new line, buying new lures, getting the outboard tuned, lower unit oil changed, trailer tires balance and lubricated, check out the tires PSI. Check, Check Check Check Check Check, everything. I can remember in the past it is almost impossible to get ready. I can fill a whole book of what happen to me in the past getting ready for NBAD tournament. I had to buy some new trailer tires, replace the transmission on the old Chevy. Is all of this worth the time for me to go to a NBAD tournament? Yes, Yes, Yes, it is to me. NBAD is my life and never will miss any of it unless it is time for me to go.

As your Vice president there are many last minute preparation for me. There is a never-ending ordeal of letters from the deaf bass clubs sending in the Application of Affiliations. Last minute to answer the letters, process the applications, send the monies to out NBAD Treasurer Alan Rork. There is a lot of filing, processing, data entries, paper works, letter writing and what everyone dream of, I have to do it.

And loving every minute of it. I will continue to do so until someone beat me out during an election. Believe me I will not be a Vice President forever. Someone surly will take my place. I will have no regret but glad I did my part to help NBAD.

Couple's Hearing Loss Has Strengthened Their Desire To Succeed

BY AMY OVERBAY
Contributing Writer

When one sense is lost, the others often become stronger, Albert and Nina Owen's hearing loss has also strengthened their desire to succeed.

Many handicapped people strive to do the same things we all do. This couple has gone beyond that and done something that many people never achieve. They own a prospering printing business in Morristown.

"We can do anything than anybody else can do." Nina said.

With the need for more space, Owen Printing moved into the old Airport Tire building on W. Andrew Johnson Hwy. In March 1997.

"We were really surprised with how many new customers we had," Albert said. "We find ourselves working overtime and late at night."

Through this hard work and dedication, the Owens hope to prove how capable of success deaf people really are.

The couple says their deafness does not hinder communication with their customers.

"They don't look at us like that, they look at us for our skills." Nina said.

Albert says he really enjoys meeting his customers face to face, and he wants them to be honest with him when it comes to their needs. Albert doesn't pronounce every word correctly, but he still insists on speaking to his customers.

"The most important thing is attitude. Speech isn't important," he said.

The Owens, who have both been deaf since early childhood, say they hope their work will encourage other deaf people in the community to get involved. They also hope more activities will be available for the hearing impaired.

The couple met in school. Albert pestered Nina for four years until they finally got together. Now they have two grown children. Cammy is at freshman at Furman University and Tyson is a senior at Carson-Newman.

Cammy was the valedictorian at her high school. During a very emotional moment, she did her own graduation speech in sign language for her parents.

Tyson serves as sales representative for the company and Linda Lampkin serves as the secretary.

Lampkin has been friends with the Owens for more than 17 years. She has 31 years experience in printing and is able to speak sign language.

"She does a very good job," Albert said of Lampkin.

Both Albert and Nina have garnered other successes throughout their lives.

Albert recently received a Hall of fame award for his participation in basketball and football during his school years.

Nina has just started her own business venture selling candles and baskets.

"I believe our printing is of great quality, and our customers are satisfied," Albert said. "We are reaching our goal and hope the business will succeed to be long term. We have big dreams for our business and the future."

"It wasn't easy, but we really feel like God blessed us in so many ways that we really didn't expect, and the struggles just make us stronger," Nina said.

VACATIONING

Terrace View is a small, intimate, little-known resort tucked away in a sheltered cove on the eastern side of Watts Bar Lake. Comfortable and quiet, Terrace View offers all the amenities for family fun and relaxation. Swimming, fishing, boating, skiing, hiking, camping, or doing absolutely nothing. Terrace View offers practically anything a vacationing family could require.

BOATING

Terrace View is a favorite gathering place for boaters throughout the Watts Bar area. With a 7,000 square foot repair shop, dry storage, open and covered slips, and a 2,500 square foot showroom, you can see why. Terrace View is also the Watts Bar area distributor for all types of boats and accessories. Boat and Wet Jet Rentals.

FISHING

Watts Bar is famous for its fishing! Over 38,000 acres of trophy large and small mouth bass, crappie, rockfish, sauger, catfish, panfish and more, are at your doorstep when you stay at Terrace View. Maybe that's why so many regional and national fishing tournaments make East Tennessee their home.

SWIMMING

Nearly 2,500 square feet of swimming pool, the largest pool in existence between Chattanooga and Knoxville, makes relaxing at Terrace View easy. Add the extra large surrounding relaxation area and the close proximity of the restaurant and bar, and you have everything you need for true fun in the sun.

RELAXING

One and two bedroom apartments overlook the lake. All are air conditioned, electrically heated and fully furnished with linens and kitchen utensils. Terrace View's newly renovated restaurant, complete with bar and dance floor, offers delicious East Tennessee cuisine at family prices. The restaurant also overlooks Terrace View's oversize swimming pool and relaxation area.
