The Carrizales Brothers Won Championship in 15th Annual NBAD Team Tournament at Sam Rayburn Lake

L. to R: Jesse Carrizales,
Alan D. Rork, President, &
Juan Carrizales

The 15th Annual National Bass Association of the Deaf Team Tournament was hosted by Houston Bass Club of the Deaf at Lake Sam Rayburn in Texas, about 15 miles north of Jasper, Texas on June 12, 13, 14, 1990. The headquarters was located at Twin Dikes Marina where the anglers brought basses to be weighed.

It was the first time in history that a team of two anglers, who are brothers, won a championship in NBAD team tournament together this summer since 1976.

They are Jesse Carrizales from Mesquite, Texas and Juan Carrizales of Pasadena, Texas, who have amassed total weight of 40.15 pounds of bass in three days at the lake. The third and final day was their best day of the tournament with catch of 20.37 pounds of bass that put them into first place for third day's meet.

In spite of three blistering hot days, the anglers managed to bring basses for cash prizes, some had to quit competing because of illness, sunburn and trouble with boat motors.

There was no new record for attendance this year.

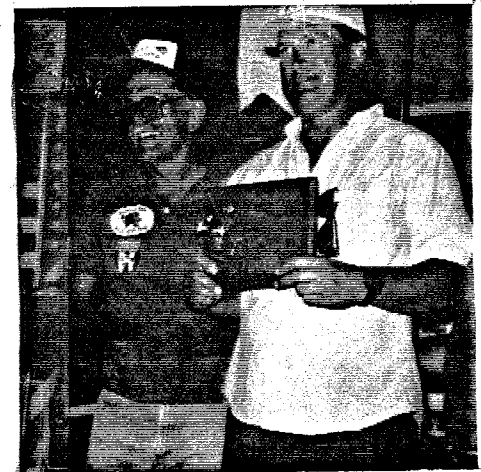

There were 122 entries received, but only 5 could not make for some reasons so that only 117 anglers participated.

Charles E. Marsh, Jr. from Olathe, Kansas teamed with Karl Nygaard of Wisconsin won second place with total weight of 32.85 pounds. It also was their best third day with the catch of 16.39 pounds which helped them to win second place in both third day's meet and final team standings for three days.

Third place went to a lucky team of John Coggins-Peckham and James Ashley, both from Texas with total weight of 24.67 pounds. They did not win any place for three days, except in final result of team standings.

The largest lunker of the tournament was 4.73 pounds caught by Morris Porter of Austin, Tx. who beat Charles Murphree's lunker of 4.71 pounds on the last day of the tourney.

Carrizales Receives Bassmaster Award

Left to right:
Robert Southwell, Founder and Jesse Carrizales

Jesse Carrizales of Texas won a bassmaster award for catching most heaviest total weight of bass in 3 days. It was 26.14 pounds of 12 bass he caught.

Notes from Publicity Director

Approval of Publishing TACKLE BOX Newsletter Twice A Year

This summer at Lake Sam Rayburn in Texas NBAD members approved upon a motion that NBAD will have two issues of NBAD TACKLE BOX newsletter in a year. The first issue will be covered with bass club news, meeting news, any change in rules or by-laws, financial report, stories, schedule of events and some other things, etc.

The issue will be published in March.

The second issue will feature results of the tournament only. Once everything is printed in the second issue about tournament which is published in the fall, it will automatically become history of NBAD.

Then it is not necessary for NBAD to publish and distribute History/Records book to anyone, except for NBAD files. The reason is that NBAD has recently received few responses from members after it was announced about selling NBAD History/Records book!

After you, the members receive the second issue and finish reading it, be sure to save that newsletter for future reference when you need. It also will be much easier for anyone who may need information for anniversary book. Nothing is lost in that new issue!

Holdridge Receives Sportsmanship Award

Left to right:
Carlos Holdridge, Alan Rork,
Pres., Billy Buza, Chairman

Carlos R. Holdridge, Texan, from Carrollton was presented a sportsmanship award for his generous helpfulness in towing troubled boats back to shore during the tournament. Congratulations.

69 Anglers Entered Bass Lunker Contest

Winner
Hollis Warmack, Jr.

69 anglers tried their luck in bass lunker contest on Monday, June 11th, from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m. only. The lucky guy is Hollis Warmack, Jr. of Louisiana who won the contest with his catch of 4.23 pound bass.

3 Anglers Achieved Distinction for Participating in Every Tournament for 15 Years

Jerry Mikus, Sr., Charles Marsh, Jr., Medford Magill

There are three anglers who have determination and love for bass fishing have achieved their participation in every tournament for 15 years since inception of NBAD in 1976. They are:

Charles E. Marsh, Jr., Ks.
Medford W. Magill, La.
Jerry J. Mikus, Sr., Tx.
Congratulations to 3 M's.

Team of Women Competed in Tournament First Time Since 1978

The last time a team of female anglers participated in NBAD tournament was 1978 when the team tournament was created first time. The team consisted of Linda Lou Biggs and Diane Sue Flickner, both from Kansas.

At Lake Sam Rayburn, NBAD had another team of female anglers second time since 1978. They are Brenda Seim and Leonora Phillips, both from Ohio. They did not have any luck at the tourney. Try your luck next time.

10 Years of Attendance Achieved by Two Anglers

There are two participants who have finally achieved by attending every tournament for ten (10) straight years this summer. They are Loren Alderman of Minnesota and Ralph Kruger of Indiana. Congratulations, guys!

26 Youths Competed in JR NBAD's Fishing Derby

Some bass anglers brought their families to Twin Dikes Marina at Lake Sam Rayburn for camping during the tournament. Meanwhile, the NBAD had a fishing derby for children on June 11th.

26 youths entered in that event with help and supervision from parents.

Krista Lee of Texas won first place in age category of baby to 7 years old.

Amy Granger of Louisiana won first place in age category of 8 to 12 years old.

Ward Crager of Texas won first place in age category of 13 to teenagers (student).

They all enjoyed the fishing event on that evening.

First Black Person Participated in NBAD Tournament Since 1976

Roy L. Marks, Indiana

The NBAD announces with much pleasure that Roy L. Marks of Indianapolis, In. is the first black person to participate in NBAD tournament since 1976. He caught only one bass which weighed in at 1.66 pounds. Good for a beginner. Congratulation.
